Society Doings in and Around The National Capital

By NATALIE SUMNER LINCOLN.

Family Parties.

Washington society is celebrating Christmas in the orthodox manner today, and most of the entertaining is given over to family parties.

The Cabinet officers and their wives, with the exception of the Secretary of State and Mrs. Secretary of War and Mrs. Garri- and the Attorney General, are spending their first official Christmas in the National Capital. The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels and the Secretary of Agriculture will give informal children's parties this afternoon, and a much decorated tree bearing fascinating packages will be the center of attraction in each home.

Christmas will be strictly observed at the homes of the foreign representatives in Washington today.

The French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand will entertain the staff of the embassy at dinner today.

The German Ambassador and Countess von Bernstorff will also have the members of the embassy staff dining with them, and a beautifully decorated tree has been erected in the ballroom.

Guthrie von Bernstorff is spending his holidays with his parents at the embassy.

The British Ambassador and Lady Cecil Spring-Rice entertained the members of the staff of the embassy in formally last night and the large Christmas tree was lighted for the occasion.

Mrs. Albert Sidney Burleson, wife of the Postmaster General, was the only Cabinet hostess who kept her day at home yesterday. A number of this season's debutantes received with her, and her daughters, the Misses Burleson.

The Chevy Chase Club presented a gay scene last night, and the Yuletide revelers danced Christmas in with much gusto.

A huge Christmas tree had been erected in the center of the ballroom, and holly and Christmas wreaths were used throughout the clubhouse to decorate the rooms.

Over 300 guests dined at the club preceding the regular Wednesday night dance.

Among those who entertained at dinners before the dance were Rear Admiral and Mrs. James Adams, Col. and Mrs. Edward Burr, Capt. and Mrs. Heathcote Grant, Viscount d'Alcy, Mrs. Sherman McCallum, Mrs. and William Wheatley, Mrs. A. T. Britton, Capt. Cochran, Lieut. North, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Butler, Mrs. Louis Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Neale.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Conrad reached here from Petersburg, Va., yesterday and will be at the Hotel Powhatan during their stay in Washington.

The Lawyers' Club.

"The Lawyers' Club," one of the most prominent organizations in Washington, held its annual dinner in the banquet hall of the Hotel Powhatan last night, and fun and frolic abounded.

The table was decorated with poinsettias and Christmas greens.

Bailey, and Mr. Frederick Chapin.

Mrs. Borland, wife of Representative Borland, of Missouri, was hostess at a charming luncheon yesterday at her residence in the Avenue of the Presidents, in honor of Miss Genevieve Clark, daughter of the Speaker and Mrs. Champ Clark.

A miniature Christmas tree formed the centerpiece, and the favors were toys and red roses.

The guests included Miss Lucie Hoke Smith, Miss Callie Hoke Smith, Miss Ethel Lloyd, Miss Helen McCumber, Miss Dorothy Campbell, Miss Marcia Murdock, Miss Elena Calderon, of Bolivia; Miss Ramona LaFevre, of Panama; Miss Russell Smith, and Miss Sylvia Metcalf.
